

GERUNDS &
INFINITIVES:
THE BATTLE OF LOGIC

WE USE GERUNDS (WALKING, DOING, EATING...)

- 🍃 after verbs of “preferences”: enjoy walking, hate drawing, adore cooking
- 🍃 after verbs that mean stages of a process: start telling, continue presenting
- 🍃 instead of nouns: swimming is joyful, sketching is an important skill
- 🍃 after prepositions: is good at planning, succeed in building
- 🍃 after some other verbs: avoid, learn, admit, consider, imagine...

WE USE INFINITIVES (WALK, DO, EAT...)

- 🍃 as purpose: He stopped to tie his shoelace. I'm calling to tell you this.
- 🍃 after be + adjectives: is easy to perform, am scary to see
- 🍃 after modal verbs: must go, have to keep, should promise
- 🍃 after verb + object: She told me to stop. They made us do it.
- 🍃 after some other verbs: teach, want, fail, decide, plan...

WE USE INFINITIVES OR GERUNDS WITH:

REMEMBER:

I remember closing the door. I remember how I did it.

Please remember to close the door!

FORGET:

You forgot to tell her this, so she doesn't know.

You forgot telling her this, but in fact you did it!

TRY:

They tried to push the button, but failed.

Try pushing this button: it might help.

REGRET:

We regret to inform you that your car has been stolen.

I regret telling him my secret. I made a mistake.

NEED:

I need to clean my car.

My car needs cleaning.

